Procedural Information

- N.B. One entry allowed each exhibitor in each class, limit 20 entries per competitor.
- N.B. Under General RULES & REGULATIONS of the Saanich Fair, Rule #14 states: When there is a class for a specific article, that type of article may not be shown in the general class. For example, petit point may not be shown in a general needlepoint class.
- Attach a description of your exhibit to the article if it is required in the category descriptions.
- All exhibits must be the work of the exhibitor, and must not have been shown at previous Saanich Fairs.
- Points will be awarded on the basis of design, degree of difficulty and skill, as well as neatness and general appearance. ALL ENTRIES MUST BE CLEAN, SCENT FREE AND IN GOOD CONDITION.
- All entries are judged even if there is only one entry in a class; however, prizes may not be awarded in a class if the judges feel the standard of work is not sufficient.
- N.B. If you do not know which class best suits your article, contact a member of the Committee before you enter the article. It is the responsibility of the entrant to enter the article in the correct class.
- Look for our exciting new classes: Modern Quilt (18-D-307); Costume (18-G-621), and Theme or Feature of the Fair, any article (18-G-622)
- Articles that combine several needlecrafts, the work of one person, e.g., weaving and sewing, can be entered in either category but only one needle art will be judged. If you would like all the needle arts to be judged, the article should be entered in Class 18-G-618.
- Be sure to see the "Work In Progress" class (Class 18-G-620). Have you got something to enter?
- Articles exhibited in Department 18 will not be advertised 'for sale'.
- Youth entries welcome.
